Make it happen!

Owasippe is one of the last extensive tracts of land in Lower Michigan (nearly 5,000 acres) that includes areas of old-growth forest, a large number of threatened and endangered species, spring-fed creeks and lakes, rare natural landscapes, and a bevy of nature-based activities.

Operated year-round, The Owasippe Outdoor Education Center will be a world-class facility providing recreation and education opportunities to the people of West Michigan and beyond. Furthermore, it will be a dynamic economic engine, contributing jobs and commerce in the expanding recreation and education industry of Muskegon County.

The Owasippe Outdoor Education Center will feature activities such as:

- Youth Summer Camps
- Corporate Retreats
- Meetings - Seminars - Conferences
- School Field Trips & Workshops
- Sports Camps & Events
- Religious Retreats
- Community Events & Workshops
- Leadership & Teamwork Development
- Field Study of Endangered Species
- Environmental Research
- Camping - Hiking - Canoeing - Fishing
- Horseback Riding
- and MUCH MORE!
